Do You Have Reservations?

Husband: A table for two please, with a view.

Wife: Oh Bob, that's so romantic.

Husband: I wanted our 20th to be special, Dear.

Waiter: Do you have a reservation?

Husband: No.

Waiter: I'm sorry, but we require a reservation.

Wife: That's strange, Frank said we didn't need one.

Husband: A friend of mine says we didn't need a reservation.

Waiter: Sir, a reservation is required.

Wife: Frank said his neighbors didn't need one.

Husband: All of his neighbors eat here without getting a reservation!

Wife: Everybody Frank knows . . .

Husband: Yeah! People all over town have eaten here for years without making reservations!

Waiter: I'm sorry you've been misinformed, but if you would have called or read our notice at the door, you would have known you need a reservation.

Announcer: When it comes to how to get the Heaven, who are you listening to? Have you considered a book that has been read by more people every year than any other book in history, the book with hundreds of fulfilled prophecies, proving that what it says is true? Have you considered the Bible?

Husband: I guess we'll have to eat next door.

Wife: Isn't that the restaurant Frank owns?
