Dr. Shami - Stealing

---

Student: Oh most wise Dr. Shaami.

Shami: That's Shami.

Student: Oh sorry. I come seeking your wisdom.

Shami: What insight may I bestow upon you today?

Student: George has stolen my pen. What should we do?

Shami: Are you standing in judgment of your fellow man?

Student: But Dr. Shami, isn't stealing wrong?

Shami: Morality is not an absolute. Morality is relative. There are no absolutes.

Student: Really?

Shami: Absolutely. You can not force your morals on someone else!

Student: But I thought stealing was wrong.

Shami: There is no right and wrong. But if you wish, I'll talk to George.

Student: I don't think so. He just drove off in your car.

Shami: What! He stole my car?!! He can't do that!!!

Student: I thought you said stealing wasn't wrong.

Shami: But this is my car!

Student: So who decides when it's right and when it's wrong?

Shami: Stop philosophizing and get me a telephone.

Student: So, there are no rights and wrongs, unless you're the one wronged?

Shami: Will you call 911!

Announcer: There are rights and wrongs.
