Jake Savage

Introduction

LifeLine Productions is dedicated to presenting the Gospel message and Biblical truths in an entertaining and thought-provoking form. We aim to plant seeds in the hearts of those who do not know Jesus Christ as Savior, and to challenge and encourage believers to a stronger walk with their Lord.

We are thankful to you for ordering this script. It is our prayer that your drama group, youth group or whatever type of group you have will be effective with this material and that God will use our collective work for His good. You are on the front-line; you have the opportunity through your performance to touch someone and lead them to Christ. May God bless your faithfulness in this task.

Jake Savage

Friend: Bob, why are you smoking a pipe?

Bob: I'm not Bob. I'm Jake Savage.

Friend: Jake Savage?

Bob: That's right. Bob did a lot of bad things. He messed up his marriage, stole from his employer, and wrecked his friend's car. Jake Savage would never do things like that.

Friend: Does this mean you'll stop borrowing things without asking?

Bob: That's right, I'm a new person. I'm now Jake Savage.

Friend: So then, Jake wouldn't wear my dinner jacket without asking, right?

Bob: Oh, yeah. Can I borrow this jacket? I'm sorry.

Friend: Wait a minute, did you say you wrecked your friend's car?

Bob: Yeah, didn't Bob tell you?

Friend: This is ridiculous. Look, Bob...

Bob: It's Jake.

Friend: Bob, if you've wronged others, the only way to deal with your guilt is to admit that what you've done is wrong, and ask God to forgive you; and, if you can, mend your relationships. You can't get rid of your guilt by pretending to be a new person.

Bob: Yeah, I guess you're right. Jake Savage is a cool name, though, huh?

Friend: Yeah, I'd get rid of the pipe.

Bob: What? You don't like the bubbles?
