Jaws

Larry: [ocean] What do you mean there's a sign warning us to stay out of the water? There's nothing wrong with this water.

Kirt: [store] What do you mean I must be saved, I'm in no danger.

Larry: [ocean] The water's not too deep; it's not too cold, and there's no current here. I don't see any reason for there to be a warning sign.

Kirt: [store] I'm not a bad person. I get along with people. I believe there's a God! Why do I need to be saved?

Larry: [ocean] That sign's so old, I'm sure that any dangers there were are long gone.

Kirt: [store] Jesus said that 2000 years ago. It can't possibly apply to me now.

Announcer: Every day we receive some form of warning. Jesus warned us that we must be saved, that our very lives, where we spend eternity, depends on our relationship with Him. You can either listen to or reject His warning. The choice is up to you.

Larry: [ocean] I don't know why the sign's still here, [JAWS theme] but come on in... there's no danger here, the water's fine, trust me.
