The King and Bill

Introduction

LifeLine Productions is dedicated to presenting the Gospel message and Biblical truths in an entertaining and thought-provoking form. We aim to plant seeds in the hearts of those who do not know Jesus Christ as Savior, and to challenge and encourage believers to a stronger walk with their Lord.

We are thankful to you for ordering this script. It is our prayer that your drama group, youth group or whatever type of group you have will be effective with this material and that God will use our collective work for His good. You are on the front-line; you have the opportunity through your performance to touch someone and lead them to Christ. May God bless your faithfulness in this task.

The King and Bill

Winston: Good morning your majesty. We have a very busy day ahead of us.

King: I know, review the troops and lunch with foreign dignitaries.

Winston: And after lunch . . .

King: By the way, who were you talking to out in the hall?

Winston: Oh that's ah . . . oh he came without an appointment. Said he needs to talk to you. Oh, ah, William Winklemeyer.

King: Bill? Well! Send him in!

Winston: But, sir, your schedule.

King: Oh, the schedule can wait. If Bill is having problems, I need to help!

Winston: B-b-b-but, what about lunch with the dignitaries?

King: Oh! Right, lunch.

Winston: Of course, your majesty. We mustn't forget about the lunch.

King: Right. Bill might be hungry. Prepare two pheasants under glass.

Winston: But, your majesty, there is so much to do . . .

King: Winston, it'll get done. Trust me. I promised Bill that if he ever needed help, or just a friend to listen, I would be there for him.

Winston: But, Sir!

King: I have no intentions of breaking that promise.

Announcer: Jesus made this same promise to anyone willing to come to him. If you need answers, Jesus wants to help.
