Amazing Alan - Camel Scene

Director: To prove a couple of points, Amazing Alan will now attempt to jump through the eye of a needle, that is welded to the top of this 55 gallon drum, while riding a camel. Are you ready Alan?

Alan: Hey, you got it guys! Gettiup!

[camel gallops by]

Director: One of those points being that a camel can sense impending danger.

[camel whinny, ahhhhh, crash]

Director: And Alan has just proved the second point.

Alan: This ain't gonna work guys.

Director: That's right, it's very difficult for a camel to get through the eye of a needle.

Alan: Hey, I could have told you that.

Director: And Jesus said it's easier to do that than for a rich man to get into Heaven.

Alan: Well, with what you guys pay me, I don't have to worry about being rich.

Director: Very few people think they are rich, Alan.

Alan: Well, I'm not in the higher tax bracket.

Director: Alan, if what you do have gets in the way of serving God, it's wrong.

Alan: Is that why I slammed my face into a stack of drums?

Director: Yes.

Alan: Oh.

Director: Jesus was telling us that we should love God more than the things we own.

Alan: Isn't there an easier way to make these points guys?
