'Cause I'm a Real Nice Guy

[ding dong, door open]

Bob: Hi, my name is Bob, and I'm a real nice guy, and I'd like to live in your house.

Husband: Uh, excuse me, but do I know you?

Announcer: As ridiculous as this sounds, this is what some people expect from God.

Bob: No, but that's okay, you see I do a lot of nice things like; I give money to the poor, and just yesterday I mowed my neighbor's lawn. You just ask anybody, they'll tell you, I'm a real nice guy.

Announcer: Some people believe that just by being good, God will let them into His home.

Husband: You can't live here just because you're nice.

Bob: What do you mean I can't live here? You let that little boy live here. Has he ever given to the poor or mowed a neighbor's lawn? I don't think so!

Husband: Well of course he lives here, he's my child.

Bob: Oh, I see, and that makes him more special than me.

Husband: That's it, I'm calling the police.

Announcer: You wouldn't expect to be allowed into someone's home if you were a stranger. Do you expect to get into Heaven if you've never met its owner? Join God's family, get to know Jesus and be welcomed home.
