Priorities

[ding dong, door open]

Al: Hi Bob! Nice of you to stop over.

Bob: Hi Al, 'just came over to let you know...

Al: Hey, you gotta see my latest investment.

[door close]

Bob: Oh, sure Al.

Al: Check it out! Did you ever see a big screen as big as this?

Bob: Wow! That's pretty big.

Al: Yeah, we had to take the wall out to get it in.

Bob: Oh.

Al: Check out this new stereo system, huh?

Bob: Wow, that's a lot of equipment.

Al: Hey, nothing but top of the line, guy. Take a look at this equalizer, [music in] ever seen so many buttons?

Bob: Mmm, not really, no.

Al: Listen, I can make the music sound real tinny; [music up] or real bassy. [no treble]

Bob: That's impressive.

Al: Hey, it's the X900. I almost bought the X600, but for a 100 bucks more I got this little button here.

Bob: What does that do?

Al: I don't remember now, but it was cool. These speakers cost me more than my golf clubs.

Bob: Wow, that's quite a bit.

Al: Naw, we'll just hold-off on the new satellite dish for the RV.

Bob: Well hey, listen, I just came over here to let you know that we still have an opening in our Christian school. 'Thought you'd like to enroll your boy.

Al: Gee Bob, right now we really can't afford it.

Announcer: Priorities... where are yours?
