Religions-R-Us

[door jingles]

Salesman: Welcome to Religions-R-Us. I'll bet you're here to buy Dr. Shami's new book, Prophecies for Today.

Shopper: No, I'd like to buy a Bible.

Salesman: Oh, don't you find the Bible a little out of date?

Shopper: Oh no, a lot of things happening today are outlined in the Bible, like the nation of Israel becoming a main figure in world events.

Salesman: Yes but Dr. Shami's book...

Shopper: Was Dr. Shaami's book written over a period of 1500 years by people of different backgrounds, like Kings and fishermen?

Salesman: Well, no but Dr. Shami does have a degree in philosophy.

Shopper: Right, but does his book have a history that can be verified by archaeology and other historical documents?

Salesman: No, but I think if you read his book your heart will testify to you that his prophecies are truly from God.

Shopper: I'd rather not depend on feelings for discerning truth. The Word of God please.

Salesman: But this book is our best seller.

Shopper: If there's no evidence that Dr. Shami's book is from God, why is it your best seller?

Salesman: It comes with a complete guide on programming your VCR.

Shopper: Really? Oooo, does that include how to stop that clock from blinking?

Announcer: The Bible: there's no other book like it.
