Savor/Savior

Kirt: Hello, I'd like to apply for the position of Savior.

Larry: Oh, you don't understand. This is a restaurant. We're called Savor, you know, like you savor a cup of coffee...

Kirt: I love mankind.

Larry: Uh, you see, we're hiring a dishwasher, not a Savior. We're a restaurant...

Kirt: With my concern for mankind, I think I'd make a great Savior.

Larry: We are a... Okay, fine, do you realize that a Savior must have hundreds of prophecies concerning his birth, life and death?

Kirt: My Aunt Martha said I'd be a boy.

Larry: That he must also have a sinless life?

Kirt: Sinless?

Larry: And that a Savior must also sacrifice his life.

Kirt: Sacrifice? Sacrifice me?

Larry: Mm hm. You see the penalty for our sin is death and in order for a Savior to save us, he must pay that penalty. Besides, the position of Savior has already been filled, we do have that dishwasher opening though.

Kirt: You already have a Savior?

Larry: Yes, we do, Jesus. He's the only Savior we need to believe in and follow.

Kirt: So do you need a spiritual guide?

Larry: We need a dishwasher.

Kirt: How 'bout a guru? I do guru.

Larry: We're a restaurant!
