A Seat With Satan

Angel: Mr. Johnson, welcome to judgement. Have a seat while I examine your life.

Mr. Johnson: Sure. Does it say anything in there about me believing in God?

Angel: Uh, yes. It does say you believed in the existence of a god.

Mr. Johnson: Oh good. I hear that's real important.

Angel: Well, I've seen enough. If you could have a seat with that group over there, you'll be taken to your destination.

Mr. Johnson: Over there? Okay.

Angel: Next!

Mr. Johnson: Uh, excuse me.

Angel: Yes?

Mr. Johnson: Is that Satan in my group?

Angel: Uh, yes it is. Next!

Mr. Johnson: Wait a minute!! You're putting me in the same group with Satan?

Angel: According to your records, you never trusted your life to God.

Mr. Johnson: Hold on!! I believed in God!

Angel: So did Satan, Mr. Johnson. He didn't put his faith in God either.

Mr. Johnson: What do you mean "put my faith in God?"

Angel: It is not enough to believe in the existence of God, or a cosmic force or deity, Mr. Johnson. You were sinful, and God was willing to forgive you through his son, Jesus. Problem is you never asked for or accepted his forgiveness. Next!
