Moving Day

Bob: Hey Frank! What are you doing this weekend?

Frank: Oh, trying to finish some projects around the house. Why?

Bob: I'm moving this weekend. I was hoping you could help.

Frank: I can do that.

Bob: Great! 7 AM Saturday! Can you bring your truck.

Frank: Uh...

Bob: I know it's new and all, but I really need a truck.

Frank: No, no problem.

Bob: Thanks, you're a real friend. It's up 3 floors.

Frank: Oh, okay.

Bob: No elevator.

Frank: Hey! We can handle it. No problem.

Bob: Mind if I drop my dog off at your place tonight? He's in the way of packing.

Frank: Oh, sure! I love dogs.

Bob: Is a week too long?

Frank: Oh, no. That's fine.

Bob: Thanks! You're such a great friend. If there's anything I can do for you, don't hesitate to ask.

Frank: Hey, since you're not going to have a yard anymore, you're probably not going to need your garden hose, are you? Mine leaks.

Bob: Uh, I was going to sell it at my garage sale. Stop by, I'll give it to you at half price.

Frank: That's okay.

Announcer: God has given us so much. He forgave our sins, made us holy and blameless in his sight. Are you grateful for this? Does your life show it?
