Religions-R-Us: Many Roads

- Salesman: Welcome to Religions-R-Us. Are you here to buy Dr. Shami's new book, "Many Roads, One Destination"?
- Shopper: Many roads, one destination?
- Salesman: Yes. It's a celebration of the truth that all religions of the world lead to the same destination.
- Shopper: Are you saying all religions are true?
- Salesman: Of course. All religions have the same message: love one another.
- Shopper: But they say very different things. They can't all be true.
- Salesman: Well, it's like describing a door. One person may describe the beauty of the wood. Another may describe its golden hinges. Both, in their own way, describe truths about the same door.
- Shopper: Yeah but, if they don't tell you how to open the door, you'll never meet the person on the other side.
- Salesman: What do you mean?
- Shopper: Jesus said, "I am the door. Whoever enters through me will be saved." Other religions might tell you to love others, but that won't get you through the door.
- Salesman: Jesus wasn't a very open minded individual was he?
- Shopper: I think He was just telling the truth.
