A Judge Who Finds No One Guilty

---

Lawyer: Your Honor, the defendant was caught with the stolen goods in his hands.

Judge: Well, he probably needed them. [Bang] Not guilty. Next!

Criminal 1: I confess your honor, I killed my boss.

Judge: Well, we all make mistakes. [Bang] Not guilty. Next!

Announcer: Many people think God will overlook their sin because He is good.

Judge: [In the distance] Not guilty. [Bang!] Next!

Audience 1: What's with this judge? He's letting everybody go!

Audience 2: Oh, he's just a very loving man.

Criminal 2: Yeah! I did it...so!

Graves: [Bang] Not guilty. Next!

Karen: But, what about the victims? This is wrong!

Larry: Well, the judge is just a very good, forgiving person.

Karen: If he doesn't convict people, then he's saying it's okay to break the law. That makes him evil.

Announcer: The thing some people hope will save them on Judgment Day is the very thing that will condemn them: God's goodness. But God has provided a way us to escape eternal punishment. Jesus died to pay the penalty of our sin. How will you face judgement? With or without Jesus?
