Get in the Lifeboat

---

Steward: Excuse me, would you like to get in the lifeboat.

Passenger 1: No.

Steward: It's very comfortable.

Passenger 1: Not as comfortable as the sofa in my stateroom.

Steward: Okay. Good evening.

Passenger 2: Hello?

Steward: Have you seen the view of the ocean from inside the lifeboat?

Passenger 2: Well, I never!

Steward: No you don't understand. I, uh-uh, oh. Excuse me.

Passenger 3: Yes?

Steward: Please get in the lifeboat.

Passenger 3: Why?

Steward: Uh. There's some great food in there.

Passenger 3: I'll stick to the dining room meals, thank you.

Captain: Jenson!

Steward: Yes Captain?

Captain: Why aren't these lifeboats full of people?

Steward: They'd rather stay in their stateroom or enjoy the meals in the dining room.

Captain: Jenson, this ship is sinking.

Steward: Well, if you would just let me tell them that.

Captain: We don't want to scare people into the lifeboats, Jenson. People would be offended. We might lose their business.

Passenger 1: Excuse me. There's water in my stateroom.

Captain: We'll get someone to fix that right away.

Steward: The lifeboat's dry.

Passenger 1: I don't want to get in your lifeboat.

Announcer: The Bible talks about hell as a very real place. People need to know that they are lost without Jesus. Are you telling them?
