I Don't Know...

Introduction

LifeLine Productions is dedicated to presenting the Gospel message and Biblical truths in an entertaining and thought-provoking form. We aim to plant seeds in the hearts of those who do not know Jesus Christ as Savior, and to challenge and encourage believers to a stronger walk with their Lord.

We are thankful to you for ordering this script. It is our prayer that your drama group, youth group or whatever type of group you have will be effective with this material and that God will use our collective work for His good. You are on the front-line; you have the opportunity through your performance to touch someone and lead them to Christ. May God bless your faithfulness in this task.

Included in the purchase price is permission from LifeLine Productions to make necessary copies for use within your church or organization. There are no additional royalties for performance of this material.

I Don't Know...

Teen #1: Well if you feel that way about her, why don't you ask her out?

Teen #2: I don't know. I doubt she'd say yes.

Teen #1: How are you going to find out if you don't ask?

Announcer: Some things we doubt are worth finding out.

Kirt: Yeah, I heard about the opening, and I'd like to interview, but I just don't think I'd get the job.

Jason: Bob, you're the best person for that job. You should go for it.

Kirt: Oh I doubt they'd even consider me.

Jason: But you won't know that unless you interview.

Announcer: Doubt should motivate us to pursue an answer.

Barb: Oh, I doubt it's cancer. I'm sure it's nothing.

Sherry: Barb, it's a lump. You need to find out for sure.

Barb: I doubt they'll find anything.

Announcer: Are you someone who doubts that God exists?

Caren: Frank, do you believe there's a God?

Frank: Oh, I don't know. Personally, I doubt it.

Announcer: The question of whether God exists is an important one. Don't base your beliefs on your doubts. Turn your doubts into questions and start asking them. The Bible has a lot to say about God. Be passionate about finding the answer.
