The Janitorial Crew

Kirt: Well, it's great having you on board as our janitorial crew. So, when can we expect you to show up?

Jason: Two in the morning.

Kirt: Great. When you clean the kitchen area...

Jason: We don't do kitchens; it's in the contract.

Kirt: Well, it's really a kitchenette.

Jason: "Kitchen" is in the word "kitchenette." We don't do that.

Kirt: Oh, uh, well, we have two types of waste baskets...

Jason: We don't do waste baskets. Too many germs.

Kirt: Oh...okay. Do you mop?

Jason: Are there chemicals involved?

Kirt: There's soap.

Jason: It's a chemical.

Kirt: No mopping?

Jason: No mopping.

Kirt: Do you vacuum?

Jason: Does it involve machinery?

Kirt: So, what exactly DO you do?

Jason: We're here to serve.

Kirt: Uh-huh. Well, all I see is you showing up at 2 in the morning to do... nothing. Why do you call yourself a cleaning service?! You don't clean anything.

Jason: Hmmm. You know, you're right. If we don't do anything, why show up? We'll bill you once a month; don't be late on the payments.

Announcer: If you say you are a Christian, does it show itself in what you do? Is your faith evident in your relationships, in how you spend your money, in the way you use your time?
