Paying for Dinner at a Friend's House

Introduction

LifeLine Productions is dedicated to presenting the Gospel message and Biblical truths in an entertaining and thought-provoking form. We aim to plant seeds in the hearts of those who do not know Jesus Christ as Savior, and to challenge and encourage believers to a stronger walk with their Lord.

We are thankful to you for ordering this script. It is our prayer that your drama group, youth group or whatever type of group you have will be effective with this material and that God will use our collective work for His good. You are on the front-line; you have the opportunity through your performance to touch someone and lead them to Christ. May God bless your faithfulness in this task.

Paying for Dinner at a Friend's House

---

Fran: Oh my desert too? Betty you have just out done yourself tonight.

Betty: It's just a simple recipe. I hope you like it.

Frank: Like it!? I'm sure it's delicious. Thanks for having us over.

Bob: Hey, we've been wanting to do this for a long time.

Betty: I wish we'd done it sooner.

Fran: I agree. You have a lovely home. [to Frank] Dear, don't forget to leave a tip.

Frank: [to Fran] I will, but they haven't given me the bill yet. [to Bob] So, Bob what do we owe you?

Bob: What do you mean?

Frank: The bill. How much for dinner?

Fran: We want to figure out how much of a tip to leave.

Frank: Yeah, the service was great!

Bob: We're not a restaurant; we're your friends.

Betty: You want to pay us for dinner?

Frank: Of course. Do you take credit cards?

Announcer: Attempting to pay for a gift is an insult to the giver. God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, so that whoever believes in Him will have eternal life. Are you trying to pay your debt to God by being good? Or have you accepted God's gift?
