Selecting a Religion

---

Husband: So, have you found a religion yet?

Wife: Here's one, they have nice friendly people, and a lot of easy to attend services.

Husband: Do you have to give up anything?

Wife: You have to go on a two-year missionary trip.

Husband: Oh.

Wife: Here's one! They are very structured and have strong values.

Husband: Well, that sounds promising.

Wife: You have to go door-to-door.

Husband: Isn't there one that allows you to just be good to go to heaven?

Wife: This one accepts all religions as valid; they focus on your inner ability to be godly, but you can't eat meat.

Husband: Oh. Next.

Wife: Here's an interesting one...

Husband: What do you have to do?

Wife: Believe that God paid the price for us to go to Heaven.

Husband: There's a price?

Wife: Yeah. One morally perfect life, per person.

Husband: I think I've got that covered.

Wife: Uh huh.

Husband: What!?

Wife: Perfect using God's moral standards?

Husband: Oh. Well I'm out.

Wife: I guess that's the point. God paid the price for us with His son's perfect life. But it's only available to those believe in His son.

Husband: Really? Maybe we should check that one out.
