This Train Is Not Going to Paris!

---

Conductor: Next stop Cleveland, Ohio.

Lady: Excuse me. How long until we get to Paris?

Conductor: Ma'am, this train goes from New York to Chicago.

Lady: I'm sure this train is going to Paris, otherwise I wouldn't have boarded it.

Conductor: Lady, there is no train to Paris from New York.

Lady: What about this one?

Conductor: There's an ocean between New York and Paris.

Lady: Well, I believe we are going to Paris.

Kirt: Excuse me, did you say we are going to Paris?

Conductor: No. We're going to Chicago.

Lady: But I believe we're going to Paris.

Larry: Wait a minute, you believe we're going to Paris? I didn't pack for Paris.

Conductor: It doesn't matter what she believes, trust me!

Kirt: This is a tough one. She believes one thing and you believe another, but we are on the same train. You can't both be right.

Larry: Yeah but, she looks really sincere in what she believes, so we are going to need passports.

Kirt: And he's paid to believe what he believes.

Conductor: LOOK!!! This has nothing to do with who believes what! This train is going to Chicago!

Larry: He's not very open minded. We must be going to Paris.

Announcer: Some say there are many ways to heaven, but Jesus said He's the only way. He left no middle ground. Do you believe Him, or reject Him?
