Waiting for the Bus

---

Husband: Excuse me, is this where you catch the bus to the airport.

Man: Yes it is. It should be here in about 20 minutes.

Husband: Great! We're going on vacation.

Wife: Harold! This bench isn't very comfortable.

Husband: Oh you're right. Hey, there's a furniture store across the street. I'll buy some lounge chairs.

Wife: Oh. See if they have a water dispenser, one with an ice maker.

Husband: Do you think they'll take traveler's checks?

Wife: I'm sure they will.

Man: So, you're going on vacation?

Wife: Yes. We've been saving up for this trip for years. Dear, haven't you gone yet?

Husband: I'm looking for an electrical outlet. I was thinking a big screen television would be nice.

Man: Why are you doing this?

Husband: Doing what?

Man: Spending all your vacation money on stuff you have to leave at the bus stop.

Wife: We might as well be comfortable while we wait.

Announcer: Jesus told us not to store up treasures for ourselves on earth, but to store up for ourselves treasures in Heaven. For where our treasure is, there our heart will be also. Where's your focus?
